

XCarrier voice trading platform

XCarrier

---

by Carrier Call

Industry

Telecommunication

Challenge

Telecommunication carriers operate in a market characterized by rapid technological change, worldwide deregulation through local and global acting regulators and global eroding margins. As a result of deregulation and growing competition, carriers must utilize other carrier networks to complete off-net traffic. With previous regulated carrier environment, carriers today are forced to establish and manage multiple interconnections. With margins constantly under threat, quality of the off-net termination, carriers must actively manage their cost structure and reduce time for making critical business decisions based on permanently changing factors and figures.

Solution

XCarrier is a powerful software solution that gives telecommunication carriers the ability to manage their costs and drive profitability on interconnect traffic and on their own network. Businesses can quickly react on low rates, special and seasonal promotions, manage costs and overflows on existing and also planned routes, identify capacity opportunities, ensure vendor invoice integrity, as well as stop or resolve disputes almost before they occurs.

Business Benefits

XCarrier delivers an on time information flow in an intuitive graphical user interface. The centralized information store delivers easy and structured management of revenue, cost and margins. Key performance indicators provide the vehicle for margin preservation, financial risk management and decision intelligence across the entire wholesale environment.

XCarrier pays back your investments in 6 to 12 months, depending on the automatism grade of implementation and existing environment.

XCarrier is the first fully integrated enterprise voice trading platform for the new generation of ambitious wholesale voice carrier. Improving margins, increase revenue opportunities, pointing out of code miss matches and improve operating efficiencies through XCarrier delivers the key fundamentals to stay ahead of today's competition in the fast changing voice carrier market. Voice carriers must improve profitability through cost management while finding new ways to generate revenue. Consequently , managing product portfolios and automating business processes are the key strategies for safeguarding voice carriers long-term financial health. Carrier Call's XCarrier enables carriers worldwide to optimize and automate their business decisions and building additional value and profitability. XCarrier combines operational and business value, enabling a streamlined business, full business control and rising margin management. XCarrier is a fully integrated, highly scalable enterprise system that can grow and adapt to business needs right now and in the future.

XCarrier unleashes enterprise wide value through following major functions and features:

- reference data management for other systems
- automated sales price list generation (full / delta)
- management of own destination and code list
- automated foreign price list import (full / delta)
- automated foreign code list import (full / delta)
- automated code and destination mapping
- destination and code version control
- network capacity monitoring
- reference data management
- network capacity planning
- last cost routing (LCR)
- reporting and trending
- invoice reconciliation
- financial analysis
- sales forecasting
- network analysis
- market analysis
- traffic analysis

List is not concluded